BIO

The Stand-up Comedy Performing Bear!

Chuck Roy is Denver's "Bear", an original comedian known for delivering audience satisfaction and outstanding reviews. Chuck grew up in New Hampshire. He first performed comedy at Nick's Comedy Stop in Boston. He earned early notoriety by filling in for Aerosmith at the Boston Music Awards. Next, he moved to Hollywood and appeared on Will & Grace and 3rd Rock from the Sun. He also charmed audiences as the warm-up act for the Late Late Show with Craig Kilborn. Upon moving to Denver, Chuck hosted movies and concerts at the world famous Red Rocks Amphitheater.

Get there early!

Audiences enjoy Chuck's ability to combine new jokes with seasoned material and classic stories. You'll laugh at his comedy featuring new jokes about current events, dating twinks, or real-life observations like Saturday Night Meathead Fights. Bring your friends, invite your favorite lover(s) and enjoy a great comedy show.

Old School Comedians Meets New School

Chuck is an Adjunct Faculty member and valued instructor at the Community College of Denver. He teaches two courses, Comedy and Introduction to the Entertainment Industry. Students benefit from the lifetime of experience crafting jokes. Faculty enjoy working with Chuck because he's a team player and part of key committees like Peer Review of Online Course Design. Now, Chuck is studying for his Bachelor's and Master's Degree so that he can become an official Professor of Comedy.
